"My favorite celebration was by Jahmyr Gibbs, when he did the Magic Mike Celebration. It was really funny especially because his teammates were hyping him up."

-senior Hassan Ansari

"Jared Goff's has always been my dad's favorite, player from the Lions. Naturally, it became mine. We even got my dad an official Goff jersey."

-junior Desiree Bardy

"My favorite touchdown was when David Montgomery scored a touchdown and did the Boy Scout Salute against Green Bay."

-principal Kenneth Voakes

"My favorite jersey is the all blue one because I think it looks good and pops out when they are on the field playing. The blue jersey is also the original colors that the Lions wore back when the first became a football team. My favorite color is also blue, so that is why I also like the blue jerseys."

-senior Hunter Whitt

"My favorite Lions player is Jake Bates because he has helped the Lions get out of sticky situations and helping them win games. I also like him because he is the best kicker in the league being 16-16 on field goal being the only kicker in the league with a perfect field goal percentage. I like him because you can always count on him making the field goal to help the Lions win."

-senior Leon Bascomb

"My favorite player is Dan Skipper because he is a crucial part of the Lions offense using his strength to overpower other team's defenses helping the Lions offense move the ball down the field. He gives good effort every week which is one of the reason why I picked him as my favorite player. He's been my favorite player for the past two years and I love watching him play every week."

-junior Alban Gjela

"My favorite Lions player is Jared Goff because he is a great player who really helps the Lions win games. He is always fun to watch whether it's in person at Ford Field or at home on the TV. I always look forward to watching him play every week and put up a great performance."

-senior Austin Lenz

"My favorite trick play was during the Cardinals game when Jahmyr Gibbs and Amon-Ra St. Brown did the hook and ladder. Goff threw it to Amon-Ra, he threw it backward to Gibbs and they ended up scoring off of it."

-senior Brandon Cummings

"I'd say my favorite game this year was the week four Seattle Seahawks game where the Lions won 42-29 on Monday Night Football. My favorite part of the game was when Amon-Ra St. Brown threw a touchdown pass to Jared Goff."

-senior Lucas Martian

"My favorite player at the moment is Jahmyr Gibbs. I like him because he is fast, and one of the best running backs overall, in my opinion."

-junior Amari Ford

"I thought that St. Brown's celebration recreations are really interesting and unique. The cake of his celebration at The Home Bakery in Rochester is a really cool tribute to his celebration."

-senior Tyler Murphy

"This house is close to where I live and every year his ice sculptures show up all over my social media feed. This year, when I saw the Lions player, I had to figure out what street it was on so I could go see it for myself. This one blew up on social media almost over night and was also featured on the NFL social media sites. I had to stop after school one day to sneak a picture. I was very excited."

-teacher Kristi Lively

"I think our most devastating loss was our loss in the playoff against the Commanders. It was really disappointing seeing us lose to a team that just got rebuilt, considering how healthy our team has become and strong."

-junior Kyle Winowski

"My favorite thing to do on the Lions game day is go out to breakfast in the morning with my family before the game starts. Then, I like to come home and turn on the Lions game and watch it with my family and maybe some friends. Since I was little we would always do this on the Lions game day."

-senior Carson Sturm

"My favorite thing to do on the Lions game day is to go to Ford Field with my family and watch the Lions put on a great performance. I also like to eat the food that they sell at the games. My favorite snack to get is a hot dog with ketchup and mustard on it. After every game me and my family go out to eat at a different restaurant that we haven't had before and get dinner."

-senior Jack Thawzin

"My favorite player is Brian Branch because he is the best safety in the league and he is very versatile, being able to do many different things to help the Lions win. Every week, I look forward to watching him play. I was lucky and was able to meet him and get a autograph from him; he was very nice and thanked me for coming to the game."

-senior Landen Tiley

"My favorite touchdown this season was when Penei Sewell caught one. I like this touchdown because Sewell is an offensive lineman, and it's not typically common for them to score touchdowns."

-teacher Nicholas Kawaia

"My favorite jersey is the blackout jersey because I think the blue popping out on the black looks better than the regular ones. I also like the helmets of the blackout because I like the black Lion logo better than the white one."

-senior Royce Haviland
